

BIRDHOUSE EXHIBIT

EIGHTY-THREE CHILDREN COMPETE FOR PRIZES IN A UNIQUE CONTEST.

Those who have not visited the birdhouse exhibit being held at No. 327 South Brand boulevard next to the Palace Grand Theater should not miss the opportunity to see this very unique exhibit tomorrow. Glendale is the first city on the Pacific Coast to hold a birdhouse contest and exhibit and the fact that eighty-four birdhouses were entered is evidence that great interest was taken and that a great many young people were kept busy at very useful employment for a considerable time. Like all other meetings and entertainments planned by the Garden Society this exhibit is free to the public, so don't fail to go and see the birdhouses. This affair is only second to the free flower show given by the Garden Society.

The three judges, Mrs. J. W. Usilton, Mr. A. Hildebrand, high school woodwork instructor, and Mr. W. S. May, contractor and builder, had a difficult task on Wednesday evening. How to select the three best from the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades respectively when all of them were best or nearly so—that was the problem. The judges would have liked to have awarded prizes to all but that, of course, was an impossibility. No names, numbers only, were on the birdhouses when they were being judged. On Thursday morning Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Ackley compared the numbers on the list with the names and found out who were the fortunate ones. These two ladies spent most of Thanksgiving day arranging the birdhouses for exhibition and both declared it was one of the happiest Thanksgiving days ever spent.

The winners in the contest were:

Second prize: Samuel Tupper.

AT GLENDALE HIGH

BIG STUNT PARTY PLANNED BY BOYS IN THE INTEREST OF SCHOOL SPIRIT.

A pie eating contest, a baby buggy race, a push ball contest, a tug-of-war, a three-legged race, a sack race, a wheelbarrow race, a fat man's race, and a vaudeville show will feature the boy's stunt party to be held on the campus next Thursday evening.

This was decided Wednesday at an assembly of the boys of the school, presided over by Ed Seay. It was one of the best get-together meetings of the year. After a few announcements the business of planning the coming fun-fest was taken up in earnest. Many suggestions were made, and the chairman empowered to appoint a committee to arrange the various stunts. When it was announced that a "feed" would be handed out the room rang with cheers.

Glendale High School's new band will be there with lots of noise—which announcement is worth a paragraph all to itself.

"Bill" Nye, student electrician, will also be on hand, which means there will be plenty of glam. Bill's motto is "Let there be light," and he certainly does believe in it if we are to judge from his past work. So when he promises to be there with his spot light, and his amperes, and his kilowatts, and all the rest, no one worries about old sol. He can just continue on his way, and light up China as usual for all anyone cares.

The committee in charge of the stunts consists of Herbert Scheuner, Don Wieman, Max Sherzger, "Brick" Beach, "Ax" West and "Squeek" Fischel, while the grub will be in charge of Robert Carmack, Irving Westwood and Emerson Padelford. Faculty advisers for this affair are Mr. Joy, Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Richardson.

The girls were active Wednesday too. The officers of the new Girls' League, which recently scored such a grand success with their first performance, Dr. Wirt's lecture, were sworn in by Mr. Moyse. They are: Jeanette McClennon, president; Florence Heacock, vice-president; Harriet Williams, secretary; Mona Butler, treasurer; Katherine Coates, '17, representative; Phyllis Adam, '18, representative; Grace Carson, '19, representative, and Olive Taylor, '20, representative.

CRANE-FAIRCHILD.

On Wednesday evening, November 29, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fairchild, of No. 433 South Maryland avenue, Ruth Fairchild was united in matrimony to Harley Adams Crane of Los Angeles. The double-ring ceremony, which was used, was read by Rev. F. A. Field. The bride was becomingly dressed in white silk and carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by Miss Marguerite Stauffacher, while Mr. John Stauffacher stood with the groom. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. Those who witnessed the ceremony were relatives and close friends. After enjoying refreshments and admiring the gifts the friends wished them a long and happy life. The groom has prepared a bungalow for his bride in Pasadena, where after the 15th of December they will be at home to their friends.

HEARTY THANKS.

The Glendale Garden Society tenders warmest thanks to Mr. Fred Wilkinson and Mr. E. Coker for allowing the use of their business premises at No. 327 South Brand for the birdhouse exhibit. It is not easy to promote civic enterprises on a membership fee of 25 cents per annum, and without the good friends who generously assist by offering prizes, donating floor space, etc., the task would prove impossible. Further acknowledgments will be made tomorrow.

ORDER TO "GET VILLA" STILL GOOD

WAR DEPARTMENT SAYS COMMISSION GIVEN TO PERSHING IS STILL IN EFFECT.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The War Department states that the original order given to Gen. Pershing to "get Villa" still stands good. Shortly after the bandit's attack on Columbus, N. M., Pershing was sent into Mexico with United States troops to avenge the death of the Americans killed and property destroyed in American towns along the border. The United States authorities are still of the same mind and Pershing's orders have not been revoked. President Wilson and Secretary of War Baker are to have a conference on the Mexican situation this afternoon.

VILLA MURDERING CHINESE

REPORTS FROM CHIHUAHUA LEAVE LITTLE HOPE THAT AMERICANS ARE ALIVE.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EL PASO, Dec. 1.—Shots were heard on the outskirts of Juarez early this morning and it was believed that Villa was attacking the city. However it was later learned that the firing was being done by a nervous outpost. Refugees arriving here report that Villa is beginning to kill all the Chinese in Chihuahua. With such reports coming in there is little hope felt or expressed for the safety of the Americans in the besieged city. Refugees say that the Carranza troops were holding the city during the first four days of the siege but early on the morning of the fifth day they abandoned the city and sought safety in flight in all directions.

TUESDAY CLUB BAZAAR

LADIES AWAIT PRECIOUS PARCEL DONATED BY PRESIDENT'S WIFE.

For several weeks members of the Tuesday Club have been the busiest ladies you ever saw. Individually and in groups their fingers have plied busily, and the result you will see tomorrow at Masonic Temple. The hours are 1:30 to 11 p.m.

Everyone is on tip toe to visit the handkerchief booth, since it was learned that an influential Democrat on the committee had written Mrs. Woodrow Wilson telling her of the bazaar for the building fund and requesting a handkerchief. Mrs. Wilson's secretary wrote a cordial reply, stating that the handkerchief was being mailed as requested. The postman is the most popular man in town just now with the ladies of this committee, as they await the coming of that precious handkerchief. The handkerchief booth will have all kinds of men's, women's and children's handkerchiefs—plain and fancy ones, large and small ones. One firm has donated twenty-five plain pure linen handkerchiefs to this booth. Mrs. Frederick Baker and her calling committee are in charge, assisted by Mrs. C. O. Pulliam and Mrs. Bert Woodard.

The art and travel booth is most unique. You will receive a printed catalogue guide at this booth to view the wonderful art loan exhibit which this tireless committee, under the leadership of Mrs. C. M. Turck, has secured. Ninety pictures will be exhibited—many of them being masterpieces. Mrs. Louis Napoleon Le Gendre, an artist recently from New York, will display many dainty little paintings at this booth. Here will be found also Christmas wrappings, Xmas cards, Red Cross stamps, etc.

Mr. Walter Cheever, a North Glendale artist of note, has been invited by the board of directors to exhibit a number of his beautiful paintings as a decorative feature of the bazaar.

The Literary Section Committee, Mrs. George Adams, chairman, has collected many beautiful fancy work articles. Here you will find things to supply your every Christmas need—little baby things, fancy towels, crocheted yokes and caps, boudoir caps, bags of every description, dollies, fancy work rolls, fancy aprons, crocheted ties and lingerie cords, necklaces, and dozens of other lovely things. A beautiful centerpiece and lace scarf were given to this booth by Glendale firms. This booth will also have 10-cent wrapped parcels post packages. Mrs. G. W. Mills of Glendale, and Miss Wolcott and Miss Noble, recent newcomers from Connecticut, will sell on commission fancy work articles and a new type of reed basketry.

The Decorating Committee, Mrs. W. W. McElroy, chairman, Mrs. Albert Dow in charge, will have a very beautiful booth of cut flowers, shrubs bulbs and potted plants suitable for holiday gifts.

Home-made candies, the yum-yum kind, will be found in abundance at the booth in which the music section is in charge.

Since the home-cooked foods booth is always sold out too early, Mrs. R. W. Meeker, chairman, assisted by Mrs. G. H. Rowe, request all who can to add a contribution to this table. Already home-made mince-meat, nut breads, cakes, doughnuts, jellies and preserves have been promised.

Mrs. E. W. Richardson's committee will be in charge of a tree, shrub and wild flower booth. Contributions to this booth will be gladly received up to the opening of the bazaar.

Mrs. L. W. Sinclair's committee have kitchen aprons, bath and guest towels, cases for silverware, ironing board covers, and a beautiful cosy comfort at their booth—gifts always highly prized by the good housekeeper.

Mrs. A. W. Tower's committee will sell ice cream and home-made cake, and ice cream cones for the kiddies from 1:30 p.m. to late in the evening.

The second-hand booth will be one of the most interesting booths at the temple. With many white elephants of splendid quality and variety secured, this committee is still receiving, and will continue to receive contributions up to the closing hour of the bazaar. More phonograph records, kitchen utensils, vases and bric-a-brac are needed to supply the demand. Contributions will be called for. Notify any of these committee members: Mrs. C. E. Harlan, Mrs. E. H. Willisford, Mrs. Jesse Joseph, Mrs. Walter Stamps, Mrs. R. L. Holland, Mrs. Stephen Packer and Mrs. Lawrence Ellis.

Mrs. John Hunchberger's committee will have hot coffee and lunches for sale.

TO HONOR DEPARTED

LOCAL ELKS WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

On Sunday afternoon, December 3, Glendale Lodge of Elks, No. 1289, in conjunction with all other lodges throughout the country, will hold their annual service in memory of the members of the order who have passed on. This service is always a very impressive and beautiful one and is open to the public. During the past year Brothers Eugene Glane and J. Homer Stacy of the local lodge have been called from their earthly labors. All visiting Elks, as well as the public in general, are invited to do honor to the memory of these as well as other Elks who have previously crossed the silent river.

The program will consist of the invocation by Rev. C. Irving Mills, a vocal solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," by Brother Walter Butterly; a violin solo, "Cavatina," by Mr. William Bode; vocal solo, "Come, Jesus, Redeemer," by Brother Leo D. Goode; a vocal solo by Frank Ragland, the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by the audience.

Brother J. H. McGarry, Past Exalted Ruler of Los Angeles Lodge No. 99, will give the memorial oration.

SPENT DAY IN HYDE PARK.

Thanksgiving Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Field and Miss Field spent the day in Hyde Park with Capt. and Mrs. F. B. Clark. The friendship of these families has lasted for over thirty years and twenty-three happy reunions have occurred on Thanksgiving day.

A part of the afternoon was spent in looking over war memorials of the captain, who served faithfully from 1860 to 1865. He was a young volunteer from his native State of Connecticut.

A book containing the early history of Los Angeles and environs, giving personal sketches as well as the beginnings of villages, now prosperous cities and illustrated by etchings of the villages, farms, etc., was greatly enjoyed. The families found mention of old friends as well as their own part in pioneer days.

ENTRY LIST CLOSES TODAY.

Everything is hustle and stir around the big tent at Broadway and Maryland today, getting ready for the Glendale-Tropico poultry show, which will be held next week. The entries are coming in fast and everything points to a record entry list. As today is the last day to make entries everyone is urged to mail or send in their entry blank today, or call up Dr. Royce, Glendale 20-J, and make reservations. It is very necessary that all entries be in today, so that the association will know how many coops to prepare.

BYRAM FAMILY REUNION.

One of the happy gatherings on Thanksgiving day was that of the Byram family, who enjoyed a 1 o'clock Thanksgiving feast at Hotel Gray. The members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Byram and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Byram of Los Angeles, Mrs. H. M. Byram, Miss Ruth Byram, Mrs. S. M. Galloway and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Banker of Glendale.

DOLL GIVEN AWAY.

At a charming luncheon recently given at the home of Mrs. Menzo Williams, curator of the Shakespeare section, members of the section spent a profitable day dressing dolls for tomorrow's Tuesday Afternoon Club bazaar. One of the members of the section has donated a beautiful $8 doll, which will be given away.

People who have leisure time and wish to hear excellent orchestra music should spend a few hours in the Butler Hall, Saturday evening, at which time the Thorp Orchestra furnishes the music.

males and hot coffee—now isn't that a warm combination? Tea and wafers will be served those who want a daintier lunch. Wafers by the box will also be sold.

The program committee announce that Mrs. Lloyd Harmon, president of the Los Angeles Federation of Women's Clubs, will open the bazaar in the afternoon with an appropriate talk, and Miss Helene Morgan will give several piano selections. In the evening our own Mayor Thompson will speak. With the hearty co-operation already manifested on every side, members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club are looking forward joyously to tomorrow as a great mile stone on the road which leads to the coveted new club home.

SUNLAND

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cornwall of Los Angeles spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Frisbee.

Mrs. Ed Thomas visited Sunland Monday.

Mr. E. C. Walker of Los Angeles spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Harron.

Miss Carrie Adams, who has been dangerously ill with poison oak, is somewhat better, with hopes of her speedy recovery.

The Christian Endeavor gave a lemon social Saturday night in Mr. Rowley's hall. A jolly good time is reported.

"The Toy Shop" will be given by the Monte Vista school Friday evening, December 15, at 8 o'clock, in Mr. Rowley's hall. The object of this play is to raise money for the school piano, which the school greatly needs. The committee report $30 donated for the piano fund. A large attendance is hoped for. Admission of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Beckmyer spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Beckmyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. M. Spencer.

Mr. F. Cunningham, the forest ranger, has moved his camp of men from the Big Tejuja Canyon, where they have been making a trail, to the Picoima Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bernhard have moved from the Branstetter house on Summit to Mr. William Barnhard's place on First street.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry, who have been at Mr. William Barnhard's for the past two months, returned to their home in Los Angeles Friday.

Mr. Alfred Adams, Jr., returned home from the northern part of the State, where he has been in the interest of his olive factory. Mr. Adams surely turns out a good brand of olives.

Paul E. Lancaster on a recent trip to Los Angeles was a caller at the Chamber of Commerce, where the largest exhibit of its kind in the world is maintained. We would advise our young people when they have time on their hands, when in the city, to spend some time at the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Abrams of Los Angeles spent Sunday at the Graham ranch. They think there is no place like Sunland for a quiet rest over Sunday.

The possibilities of a day with the Maxwell car. Leaving Sunland about 9:30 Sunday morning four of us started for a day in the open. The air was fine and we were all in our best of spirits after weeks of office work indoors we were to make the most of our time. The view of the mountains as we reached Tejuja was beautiful. The sun casting lovely tints on the foothills. We sped along past La Crescenta, La Canada to beautiful Pasadena, through Pasadena past Azusa and other towns to Lordsburg, where we stopped for a short while. This is a country of citrus fruit. Trees laden with oranges and lemons. A queer sight was the smudge pots between the trees, ready to be lighted when the thermometer falls to freezing point, thus eliminating all danger of loss of fruit. After a drive through Pomona with its beautiful parks we entered Brae Canyon, where we stopped to eat our lunch on the side of a grassy foothill. The sky was a clear blue and the view in the canyon was fine. Great herds of cattle, hogs and goats fed on the foothills. Passing through the canyon where the oil wells are dotted thick over the hills. These oil wells furnish employment to hundreds of people. The town of Brae is the home of those employed in the oil fields. Coming out of the canyon we sped along paved roads to Fullerton and Anaheim. Orange county is noted for its paved roads. We here find altogether a different country than that we have passed. The ground is a white lime-looking soil. Great fields of peppers, tomatoes and sugar beets. The harvest of the sugar beets is just over and herds of cows covering the fields were feeding on the beets left in the field. This is a great dairy country. Santa Ana is the center which supplies Los Angeles with a good share of its butter and milk. Our object point was Sunset Beach, which we reached about 5 o'clock. After a short stop we started for Los Angeles through Long Beach by way of Seal Beach and beautiful Naples over the Long Beach boulevard and reaching Los Angeles about 7 o'clock, where we stopped for dinner and proceeded on to Sunland, reaching home at 9:40, having traveled 149 miles, viewed thirty-four cities and towns at a cost of $3.60 for oil and gasoline.

Mr. Akens is digging a fine crop of potatoes, both sweet and Irish potatoes. This ranch produces the finest vegetables in the valley. The soil seems especially adapted to their growth.

Mrs. Mary Mears is at the old home ranch for a few days.

The Park Hotel is closed, Mrs. Branstetter, the landlady, having gone to Los Angeles for a while.

The young people of the First Baptist Church, led by Dr. Glen Hammond, went to the top of the hills above the doctor's beautiful home site, for devotional services Thursday morning at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. A. D. Kirchman will be hostess to the Ladies' Aid Society at her home on Walnut drive Thursday, December 7, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nance entertained for dinner Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson and family of Big Tejuja, and Miss J. McKeller of Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams, Sr., entertained a family reunion of the Adams and Buckner families on Thanksgiving.

Sunland Baptist C. E. December 3, 6:30 p.m. Welcome. Rev. C. N. Wester, pastor. Subject, "The Consecration of Business Life." Rev. 3:14-22. Consecration meeting.) Leader, Orpha Stancliff.

VALLEY VIEW.

Mr. W. C. Bradley of No. 1617 Oak street starts today for Mexico City, whence he came several months ago. He goes to El Paso and thence via Eagle Pass to his destination. Mr. Bradley is an expert railroad man and has spent many years in Mexico speaking the language like a native. He says the country needs a dictator like Diaz in control if it ever is to prosper again. The peons know no rule but that of force.

Mrs. Nefsa, No. 735 South Central avenue, is quite ill of tonsillitis.

Vine street, especially that portion between Central and Columbus, is sadly in need of leveling. It is now in valleys and ridges and a machine bumps over it as if it were a corduroy road.

Mrs. Gertrude Moffatt Jennings of Long Beach recently returned home from a visit here with her parents, E. Moffatt and wife, No. 1510 Hawthorne.

Frank C. Smedley of No. 1543 Riverdale drive, is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

J. B. Wright's new home at No. 1546 Penn street is rapidly nearing completion.

W. J. Roney and family have moved from No. 1615 Oak street to Los Angeles.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Elder Frank W. Emerson will preach Sunday morning. He is a man of persuasive eloquence, well grounded in the scriptures, a man full of good words. Brother Emerson has been called to the pastorate of the Ontario church, to begin his work January 1, so this is probably the last opportunity we will have to hear him. It is hoped he will have a large hearing.

Special music. In the evening the Christian Endeavorers will install their new officers and give an interesting program. Give the young people a big audience. They always have something good.

THE TYRELL ACCIDENT.

George Tyrell, who resides on Ruth street, Glendale, and who is employed by the Public Service Department, arranged Thursday to have some wood hauled from the west side of the Southern Pacific tracks west of Glendale.

Mr. Tyrell went to the place where the wood was to be gotten early in the morning and his two small sons were to come with a horse and wagon later in the day to get the wood. The boys got a horse at the Glendale Stables and at about 10:30 o'clock were driving across the Southern Pacific tracks when a belated passenger train, running at a terrific speed, struck the horse which was just being driven upon the track.

The poor animal's jaw was broken, the skull fractured and the head badly mangled. The owner of the horse thought it necessary to have the poor beast's suffering put to end so it was ordered killed. Fortunately the boys escaped without being injured.

One hundred people partook of the fine turkey dinner served by the Gray Hotel on Thanksgiving day.

A MILE OF PENNIES.

General Richard Gridley Chapter, D.A.R., started this morning on a journey, a mile in length, each step to be marked by a copper cent. In other words, the Regent, Mrs. John Hyde Braly and the members of the chapter have set out to collect a mile of pennies. Mrs. T. H. Addison of No. 316 Belmont street is the treasurer of this fund, which is to go to the All Night and Day Nursery and the Maternity Cottage in Los Angeles. The nursery has been forced to close on account of lack of funds and the ladies feel that while so many dollars are being sent across the water to alleviate the distress of the war sufferers, that it will be easy to collect pennies for caring for our own babies. Sixteen pennies make a foot and there are 5280 feet in a mile. The members of Richard Gridley Chapter will be glad to receive any assistance in this good work. Children will be glad to contribute their pennies to help the babies and larger sums from grown-ups will not be refused.

Which Do You Prefer?

Pullman or Freight?

No one would think of riding in a freight car if he could enjoy the comfort of a big, comfortable easy riding Pullman parlor car.

So with automobiles. Most of the popular priced cars ride like freight cars. This is due to the old fashioned type of spring.

Many manufacturers still continue to use them.

The Overland does not. The 75 B Overland has the latest type of cantilever shock absorbing springs. As a result it is one of the easiest riding cars in the world. One demonstration will prove this. $635 f. o. b. Toledo.

LA CRESCENTA

The second dance of the Crescenta Dancing Club will be given this evening at the school house. Members are requested to bring their membership cards and present them at the door.

The young ladies of the valley have been indebted to Mrs. Belle Miller for entertainment of various kinds. Her latest efforts have resulted in the organization of the "Camp Fire" girls. The young ladies met last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Miller, their guide, and joined the national organization, known as "The Wohelo Camp Fire Girls." At this meeting the girls named their local club "Tehua" and elected the following officers: Alberta Bertrand, president; Gertrude Hawkins, secretary, and Roberta Hopping, treasurer. The girls are planning to take many joyful trips to our canyons and mountains in the near future.

Miss Mabel Rudy and her sister, Miss Ruth Strode, spent the past week with their sister, Mrs. J. J. Farmer, in Imperial Valley.

Mr. Fritz Adam, who has been living at the Fairmount Hotel, has decided to make his home Los Angeles. Everyone will regret that he is leaving the valley as he has been a great favorite in the society of the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wolf, accompanied by Mr. Wolf, Sr., were very nicely entertained by their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rachlin of Westlake Park, Los Angeles, with a Thanksgiving dinner Thursday evening.

Mrs. William Fahey of Mayfield avenue has returned from San Francisco, where she was called by the death of her brother a short time ago.

Mr. Hanger of the Fairmount Hotel is not only a successful landlord but confesses himself a turkey fancier as well. His efforts at turkey raising resulted in a forty-pound gobbler, which he killed for his guests' Thanksgiving dinner. Yes! Mr. Hanger's scales weigh correctly.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown are enjoying the sights at the San Diego exposition this week, having left the valley at the beginning of the week to spend Thanksgiving with friends in San Diego.

Mr. Ray Coopson of Fullerton, Cal., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coopson, of Michigan and Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. M. M. Bruce enjoyed a day's visit this week from her daughter, Mrs. May Easton, of Los Angeles. While here, Mrs. Easton became the owner of one of Mr. Nettleton's big turkeys.

A reception of farewell in honor of Mrs. Katherine Gray was given by the Ladies' Aid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wetherbee, Monday evening. Mrs. Gray was a prominent leader in club, church and Parent-Teacher circles and everyone regrets her absence, hoping that her leaving will not be final. She will make her home at Claremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Middlekauf have moved into the Dyer place. The Walbridge family, former tenants of the place, have located in Los Angeles.

A large shipment of books has been sent for by the La Crescenta library and are expected to be delivered by the last of next week, according to Mrs. Belle Muller, librarian. Among the books will be the latest in fiction, war stories, books of travel and history.

The home of Mr. A. Bertrand is being rebuilt and enlarged by Carpenter Fred Russell. Extra rooms have been added and the house is being prettily refinished inside.

The Ladies' Aid of La Crescenta met at the church Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served to the members and to the school children as an after-school treat. The afternoon was spent with sewing and fancy work.

Mr. Wolf, father of A. E. Wolf, who conducts the drug store, will not open the long expected meat market on account of having a bad attack of rheumatism, so the Wolfs will conduct the drug store only.

Mrs. V. B. Claplin and family have taken a place on South Vermont avenue, Los Angeles, in order that Miss Gwendolyn may devote more time to her studies at Junior College. Mrs. Claplin rented her home recently to Mr. Joseph Metzger of Glendale.

Mr. Willis Wise, La Crescenta's able painter and carpenter, repainted the home of Mrs. Volker this week.

F. A. Hangar, proprietor of the Fairmount, reports a flourishing business for the past month at the hotel. Among the guests who registered for the past two weeks were Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Moore, Elmwood avenue, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moore, Cahuenga avenue, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Snider of Los Angeles, Rev. and Mrs. Scott, La Canada, Miss Ida May Rohrer of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Holiday, Gates Hotel, Los Angeles; Miss Adeline Bernhard, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Anderson, Los Angeles; Dr. Ida B. Stockwell, Los Angeles; Lewis E. Conrey, Saginaw,

The Monte Vista Valley Band, under the leadership of Mr. R. Walter Maygrove, is preparing a splendid entertainment to be given as a benefit for our La Crescenta Band at the school house December 8. The prices have been made very moderate to enable entire families, who are music lovers, to attend. The program will consist of numbers by both band and orchestra; also the famous Junior Band, all under 13 years of age, will give several sensational numbers. They challenge the world's bands of children of like ages and rightly so. Among the most attractive numbers is a clarinet solo by Mr. Maygrove himself, a baritone solo by Constance Maygrove, the youngest baritone player in the world, and a wonderful musical novelty act by Dorothy Maygrove. There will also be dramatic readings and solos on many other musical instruments, such as the cornet, saxophone, violin, etc. Punch and home-made candy will be on sale to help swell the receipts of the evenings.

The use of the loops in the new Pacific Electric terminal at Sixth and Main streets has been promised for Sunday, December 3, to be followed later, on completion of the interlocking and signal installation, by the occupancy of the stub tracks east of Los Angeles street.

This means that the company will be able to work into the new arrangement gradually instead of opening up the whole terminal at once. New time tables are being prepared for the lines which will use the loops, cutting down terminal time in Los Angeles to the minimum to prevent delays on the loops.

The eastbound loop track will be used only by Pasadena Short Line and Oak Knoll Line trains. These will come south on Main street and go north on San Pedro street. Passengers for Pasadena may board cars at any point from First and Main streets south without extra fare. The westbound loop track will be used by Alhambra, Sierra Madre, Sierra Vista, Redondo Beach, Torrance, Whittier and La Habra lines. Passengers inbound on the Sierra Madre, Alhambra and Sierra Vista cars may alight in the terminal or may ride through to any point on Main street as far as First street without extra fare. The Glendale, Burbank, Anandale and Mt. Lowe lines will enter and leave from Main street as heretofore.

The Pacific Electric elevated will cost, when completed, more than $350,000. Incoming and outgoing passengers will be segregated and hundreds of trains a day will be taken off of Main street.

According to the report of County Health Officer Dr. J. L. Pomeroy, 25 per cent. of the birth rate in the rural districts of Los Angeles county are Japanese children. During the fiscal year, ending last July, 1765 births were reported in the rural district of the county, viz. outside of incorporated cities, which do not come under his jurisdiction. This is among a population of 100,000. Only 62 1-3 were of native born whites.

The Book Store
